

Unrepentant anti-vax GP says she is ‘delighted’ to be struck off

1688651220

1688651220

A GP says she has no regrets over telling parents to let their children get measles is ‘delighted’ to have been struck off the medical register. NHS GP Dr Jayne Donegan, who also worked as a homeopath, gave parents ‘one-sided’ views about vaccines during a series of paid talks she would host about immunisations, a medical tribunal heard yesterday.